This award chart can be used by families to help incentivize memory work. A student can earn a point for any week and subject where he/she has achieved mastery. Participation is optional and the level of mastery required to obtain a point is up to the parents' discretion.

For History, students should be able to explain each history topic and recite the history sentence. The students have all this information in their binders, under the "Tour Guide Survey" so they can study independently.

For Geography, students should be able to LABEL the correct geographic country, state, or feature on a blank map.
